

US Army Corps of Engineers®
Buffalo District
BUILDING STRONG®

Luckey Site Groundwater Monitoring

SAMPLING AND MONITORING RESULTS: Groundwater moves across the site from the southeast to the northwest. Wells with constituents that exceed the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (USEPA) drinking water guidelines are confined to the site. Human health is not being affected because onsite wells are not utilized for drinking water and offsite wells have not been impacted. The results indicate that the onsite exceedences of acceptable water criteria do not show a long-term increasing trend.

