Hi [REDACTED],
You provided us with a name from [REDACTED] earlier - [REDACTED] [REDACTED], but we do not have her contact information. Please provide us with her email address if you have it so that we can let her know about the sources sought synopsis. [REDACTED] has been contacted.
Thank you,
[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]:

Thanks for the info....I believe that the two we are most interested in are [REDACTED] (who has been following this) and [REDACTED].

And happy thanksgiving to you and all your families.

[REDACTED],

a For your information, our contracting office has submitted a Sources Sought Synopsis for posting on the Fed Biz Ops website to formally define pool of bidders for the Technical Facilitator role. This announcement is intended to ensure interest exists before a formal Request For Proposal is posted (i.e., it allows us to optimize our Proposal and Contracting strategy).

[REDACTED] has compiled a list of past interested parties that were interviewed previously by us and your group; these individuals will be notified of this preliminary announcement. [REDACTED] is on Leave today, otherwise I would attach the list, so I'll ask her to ensure the list is complete with your previously interviewed candidates. Please submit any names you feel should be notified of the announcement, or pass the information along as you see fit.

Here is the website link for Fed Biz Ops:

<https://www.fbo.gov/?s=main&mode=list&tab=list>

The announcement should be listed shortly (just submitted) and searched via State and Sources Sought as the Procurement Type (through Advanced Search form). I would wait through the first week of December (12/3/10) before searching, simply to allow all the systems to synchronize.

Thank you and please enjoy your holiday weekend,

[REDACTED]
