[REDACTED] forwarded your request to me for response. The Technical Memorandum is going to be sent to the elected officials, property owners and state and Federal agencies today for receipt on Monday. The document will be available on the web Monday, a News from the Corps will go out, postcards will be mailed to the mailing list and ads will be placed to notify the community of the release.

For the time being, if you have a request for information regarding the Niagara Falls Storage Site Interim Waste Containment Structure Operable Unit Feasibility Study, please channel it through [REDACTED] so that the requests can be prioritized with the community.
Have a great weekend!

We were told the tech memo would be released today.
Is there a problem?
