

Lt. Col. Jason A. Toth

U.S. ARMY CORPS OF ENGINEERS

BUILDING STRONG.

Lt. Col. Jason A. Toth assumed the duties of deputy district commander of the St. Paul District on Jan. 14, 2016. Prior to this assignment, he served as the executive officer for the 588 Brigade Engineer Battalion, during which time he deployed to Kuwait with the 3rd Armor Brigade Combat Team, 4th Infantry Division, in support of Operation Spartan Shield.

Lt. Col. Toth hails from northwestern Indiana and received his commission in May of 2000 from the United States Military Academy at West Point, New York. In addition to his commission, he earned a Bachelor of Science degree in civil engineering from the United States Military. He holds Masters of Science degrees in geological engineering from the University of Missouri at Rolla, Missouri, and civil engineering from Stanford University, California. He is also a licensed Professional Engineer in the state of Missouri.

His initial assignment was with the 555th Engineer Brigade at Ft. Lewis, Washington, where he served as platoon leader and company executive officer in A Company, 14th Engineer Battalion. He participated in Operation Iraqi Freedom first as a company executive officer and then as an assistant battalion operations officer. Following the Engineer Officer Advanced Course, he served as an engineer planner with the 8th US Army Headquarters in Youngsan Garrison, South Korea. He subsequently commanded Headquarters Support Company, 19th Engineer Battalion, based out of Ft. Knox, Kentucky. His company command included an operational deployment to Tikrit, Iraq. Post-command, he completed graduate work at Stanford and joined the faculty of the United States Military civil and mechanical engineer department, where he taught civil engineering for three years as an instructor and assistant professor. Prior to his most recent assignment with the 588 BEB, he served as the chief of Operations and Brigade Engineer for the 2nd Armored Brigade Combat Team, 4th Infantry Division, Ft. Carson, Colorado, which also included a deployment to Kuwait in support of Operation Spartan Shield.

Lt. Col. Toth is a graduate of the Engineer Officer Basic and Advanced Courses; the Army Command and General Staff College; the Air Force Command and Staff College; and the Army Airborne and Sapper Leader Schools. His awards and decorations include the Bronze Star Medal, the Meritorious Service Medal, the Army Commendation Medal, the Army Achievement Medal, the Volunteer Service Medal and the Combat Action Badge.

His operational deployments include, Operation Iraqi Freedom I and 06-08 and Operation Spartan Shield 14 and 15.

U.S. ARMY CORPS OF ENGINEERS – Buffalo DISTRICT

1776 Niagara Street, Buffalo, NY 14207

www.lrb.usace.army.mil